ENGINEERS AT WORK ON CHARLEROI COAL SURVEY

Carnegie Coal Company
Getting in Shape to Start Work

WILL BUILD TIPPLE
Similar Plans to Those Drawn by Charleroi Company to be Followed

Under direction of George S. Batton, mining engineer of the Carnegie Coal company, surveys of the Charleroi Coal company property purchased a week ago are being made. A corps of about half a dozen men has been put to work. R. A. Thomas will probably be the man in charge at the plant. The surveys which were started Friday will be to ascertain data of the sidings and location for a new haulage. As soon as these surveys are completed work of improvement will begin to put the mine in order for an early start.

Plans drawn by the Charleroi Coal company for the construction of a new tipple will practically be duplicated, it is stated by the new concern. Other improvements similar to those planned by the Charleroi company will be made. In one particular they differ materially. In the plans prepared by the Charleroi Coal company engineers, a power plant was included to be used by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company for their glass factory conjunctively with the coal plant. It is understood the Carnegie Coal company will buy their power.

HOTT IS GROOMED

Contributor Thinks Former Burgess Would be Popular Man

MADE GOOD IN OFFICE

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:

The coming borough primaries for the nomination of borough officials from burgess down, should and is being given considerable thought just at this time. The office of burgess of the borough and who shall fill it is taking the lead in discussion Charleroi with its reputation for doing things, for its clean and well paved streets, its numerous and fine churches, its exceptional filtration plant and its efficient fire department, its excellent street car service, the building of a government building, and the fact that this the Governor Tener's town, make it incumbent upon the citizens of the town to select their best man from the many good men who are now spoken of for burgess. When it is known that a majority of the improvements have been accomplished within the last eight or ten years, it speaks well for the executive and judiciary ability of the officers of the borough during that time, in so skillfully guiding the affairs of the town, that the citizens today are justly proud of.

There are many good men named as probable aspirants for the office of burgess, and among them James J. Hott, who formerly filled that office with credit and honor to himself and the town. It is well known to the older citizens that "Jim" knew no pull, no color, no creed, when justice was demanded from him, and yet he is one of the most considerate and sympathetic of men of which scores can testify. During former Burgess Hott's term, many propositions were made, improvements suggested and franchises asked for. Some of the propositions were acted upon, improvements suggested were carried out, some franchises asked for refused, others granted, until today we

WEST PENN QUILTS TROLLEY PROJECT

Governor Tener Refuses Charter For Trans-
County Road Because of Protest Made by Washington and Jefferson College

All hope of the West Penn interests securing a charter over East Wheeling street, Washington, to build a line to Bentleyville from Washington has been abandoned by the West Penn officials. Governor Tener has refused to sign the charter granting the Washington Traction company the right to use the street, on account of the protest which was filed by President J. D. Moffat of Washington & Jefferson college, on the grounds that the line would seriously interfere with the work in the new Physics building.

The Washington Traction company secured a franchise from the borough of Washington some months ago and also from the borough of East Wheeling and some $10,000 had been spent by the West Penn interests in engineering work and in securing rights of way between Washington and Bentleyville.

After the franchise had been secured the college authorities made a protest both to council and to the state department. Efforts were made to have the company enter Washington over the Beau street lines of the Pittsburgh Railways company and the West Penn interests were willing to accept this arrangement. But the Pittsburgh Railways company would not agree to it and sent its attorneys to Harrisburg to protest against any such traffic arrangement. The West Penn interests, in order to cause no injury to the work in the Physics building agreed to run its large feed wires around by Strawberry alley so that they would not be on the square between Lincoln and College streets, near the college building. They say that this arrangement would have made it possible to secure the entrance to Washington on Wheeling street and would not have interfered in any way with the work which is being done in the new Physics building.

Governor Tener is reported to have promised Dr. Moffat that the charter would not be signed and every effort to have him change his position has been futile.

H. P. Chambers of the West Penn interests stated Saturday that the company had now given up all hope of getting a line through to Bentleyville and would be obliged to abandon this project and take up others in other parts of Western Pennsylvania.

This also means the abandonment of the project to connect Washington with Wheeling, which was a part of the scheme of getting an entrance to the Nail City over the lines of the City and Elm Grove company whose lines now extend to West Alexander.

ATTACK ON OPERATOR

Telephone Exchange
Girl Tells Story of Wild Experience

A story of a terrifying experience in the Bell Telephone office is told by Miss Frances Alsopp, the 18 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alsopp of Washington avenue. Miss Alsopp is the night operator at the Bell exchange. She states that while she was at work Sunday morning at about 2 o'clock she heard a noise at the door leading to the manager's office. She opened the door, she relates and was confronted by a man dressed and looking like a tramp.

She said: "What do you want?" "I want you," replied the intruder. Just then a call came in, according to Miss Alsopp's story and she started to answer it. The man put his hand on her shoulder ordering her not to turn in the call. She wrenched free, scratching her arm and he hurried away. Miss Alsopp said the intruder had gained entrance over a transom at the manager's office.

Investigations are being made by the police into the affair.

have one of the most up-to-date towns in Western Pennsylvania, and while there were thousands of dollars expended, there has not been one breath of graft or scandal connected with it.

In view of the achievements, started and accomplished, the energy and activity expended, in the interests of the town the genial disposition and well known civic pride of Mr. Hott, it is little wonder that many of the people say, that "Jim" Hott is their choice for burgess. There is hardly any doubt that if "Jim" decides to be a candidate that the one who would beat him, (to use a street phrase) would be going some. Citizen.

Washington Avenue Church

REV. BURSON PREACHES

What has proved a remarkably successful period of revival was brought to a close at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church Sunday night. Seventy was the number of converts secured during the three weeks of services conducted by Rev. John R. Burson, the pastor.

Rev. Burson preached on the theme "The Love of God" Sunday evening to a crowded house. Hardly an empty seat was to be found. His sermon was a masterly effort and brought an even dozen persons to take a stand for better things.

Rev. Burson's assistants were the members of the church themselves, he having no evangelist to help.

Revision Commission Proposed to Gather Data Before Formers Meet

Harrisburg, Jan. 27.—When the legislature convenes again tonight three bills are scheduled to be introduced that will pave the way for a new constitution. These bills are the product of the labors of the committee, consisting of William Draper, Lewis, Robert D. Dripps and State Chairman Henry G. Wasson, which was named by the executive and legislative committee of the last Republican convention in Philadelphia in December, and was in furtherance of the resolution adopted in favor of holding a constitutional convention.

The first bill provides for a submission to a vote of the people next November of the question of holding a constitutional convention. In the same bill provision is made for the election of 165 delegates to the convention, three from each Congressional district and 15 from the State at large. In the event that a majority of the people voting on the question vote in favor of holding a convention the delegates simultaneously elected will meet in Harrisburg on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, 1914, with full power to devise and propose a new constitution.

The question of granting woman's suffrage, of the initiative, the referendum, and the recall of officials and of decisions, must be submitted separately so as to have a separate vote on these special points, and on any others that one-third of the delegates may require.

The second bill is a general one, prescribing regulations for any election at which the question of holding a constitutional convention is submitted and at the same time the choice of delegates thereto is made. It provides the form of ballot and the method of conducting the election. It is to be a non-partisan ballot. All the nominations are to be made by petition, filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth not later than 30 days, nor earlier than 60 days, before the election. Nominations can be made in no other way.

The third bill provides for a commission of nine persons to be appointed by the Governor, to be known as the Constitution Revision Commission of Pennsylvania. The Governor must appoint it within 30 days after the passage of the act and it must organize within 15 days after appointment. The duty of the commission is to make a preliminary study of the more important questions involved in the revision of a constitution, to gather and prepare statistics, literature and information and to submit recommendations to the convention, if one be held, or in the event of none being authorized, to report to the General Assembly convening in 1915 a schedule of amendments to the present constitution, with their reasons.

UNCIVILIZED.

An article in the current number of the American Magazine, written by a special sociological investigator about the lynching at Coatsville, states that the significance of the whole affair is that great industrial communities, and states, like Pennsylvania, and Massachusetts, where the recent Lawrence strikes attracted world wide attention, are not civilized. He makes the deduction that the modern conditions that prevail in the most of the American industrial communities has resulted, instead of a homogeneous people in three distinct stratas or classes. These he designates as a "materialized upper class, a vulgarized middle class, and a brutalized lower class."

The upper class, the writer says, is the wealthy one, the middle class the trading people, the ones whose chief aim is to exploit the lower class, and which subordinates everything to so-called "business," while the lower class is the underpaid workers who live in wretchedness and indecency. This shown by the conditions at Coatsville, where the lynching of the negro occurred. The big iron and steel works there pay less than an average of $2 a day to their hands, and all live in poverty, squalor and wretchedness. At Lawrence, in Massachusetts, the textile workers were shown to earn such pitiable wages that desperation and recklessness rather than special grievances is what actuated the great labor disturbance. Where such conditions prevail, the writer asserts that such communities are uncivilized. Pittsburgh is classed among the barbarian communities.

So far as the Coatsville lynching is concerned, the failure to punish the offenders, the writer says, was due to the sentiment in the town which was afraid it would "hurt business." He also makes the statement that there never was a time when the exact perpetrators could not have been arrested—and can now—but that with the sentiment of the community against any action, nothing can be done. The lynching itself was merely a hoodlum outbreak, such as is likely to occur in any industrial community again as long as such brutalizing conditions prevail. That is why the writer terms these communities "uncivilized."

COMING THICK AND FAST.

Reforms and changes are coming thick and fast in Pennsylvania—that is, the disposition to grant these reforms is everywhere manifested by the legislators, who, instead of holding back for orders, as was formerly the case when the people were indifferent to affairs at Harrisburg, are now breaking their necks to be the first to introduce some radical bill or other, just to let the public know their heart is right if nothing more. Indications are that more constructive legislation will be enacted this year than ever before, and that the public will not be satisfied with proposed reforms unless it is the simple pure article.

All this goes to show how easy it is for the people to get what they want if they all go after it. With every ground swell of popular disapproval of existing conditions, there is a break to cover by all politicians and office holders. Special interests, which have hitherto ruled—because the people permitted them to—have come to concede everything the people ask, and popular government once more comes into its own. We may expect some radical changes in existing conditions as a result of the present session of the legislature, and the wonder will then be why did the people delay so long in coming in to their own.

Nature's Remedies for Disease.

Every fall in olden times the family medicine chest was replenished with roots, herbs and barks, nature's remedies for diseases. Sculleap for nervousness. Pennyroyal for colds. Clover Blossoms for the blood. Thoroughwort for colds, Wormwood and Balm of Gilead Bubs for sprains, and so on. It is interesting to note that the most successful remedy for female ills the world has ever known had its origin nearly forty years ago from roots and herbs and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made today in immense quantities from those same roots and herbs with extreme accuracy, care and cleanliness. The standard remedy for female ills.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

At a nearby Sunday school recently it is stated that the teacher of a juvenile class was trying to impress upon her young charges that the proper thing to do at all times was to make some one happy.

"It is the duty of every one to make some one happy," said the teacher. "Now have you done so, Johnny?" she asked of a seven year old hopeful.

"Oh, yes," said Johnny, promptly. "That's right. What did you do?"

"I went to see my aunt and then made her happy by going home. She told a neighbor that I always made her happy when I went home."

IMPROVEMENTS

PLANNED FOR

North Charleroi Streets May be Paved This Year—Council Outlines Definite Plans for Beautifying Town.

A number of improvements are planned for this year at North Charleroi. If plans are carried out at least two streets will be paved, and the entire hill district severed. The council has already considered an ordinance for the grading and paving of Fourth street up the hill from the school building to Conrad avenue, and it will only be a matter of time when this excellent residence street is bricked.

It is the idea to have Seventh street paved. This is the street that leads up past the Monessen-Charleroi hospital. Also Fourth street from the railroad to the river, it is believed will be graded and bricked before the year has passed.

Plans are now at Harrisburg for the sewerage of the hill district. These plans were prepared during the last few months and filed with the State Department of Health. Approval of the plans will mean the beginning of sewerage work.

There were few municipal improvements made during 1912. The previous year however was a year of heavy expenditures. Then Lincoln avenue nearly the length of the borough was paved.

The prospects for the spring and summer in the real estate business and building trade are bright. North Charleroi certainly has a future."

NORTH CHARLEROI RESIDENCE TOWN

Many Good Homes to be Found Throughout Borough—Building up Rapidly on Hill—Pretty Sites to be Had.

As a residence town the borough of North Charleroi is living up to predictions made years ago. Advantageously situated and in close touch with both Charleroi or Monessen, having transportation facilities that really are not to be had in either of the two larger sister boroughs, the town is growing rapidly. New houses are springing up all over the town, and particularly on the hill. The town that wasn't a town when the census man came around in 1890 has now a population that is estimated to be near 1,500.

When noses were counted in 1900 it was ascertained that North Charleroi borough contained 425 persons, and was lucky to have that many. There were no paved streets and few improvements. After street car lines and the Monessen-Charleroi bridge was dedicated North Charleroi's era of prosperity that has not slackened a bit since began. In 1910 the population had more than doubled, there being within the borough limits 1,008 persons.

The principal and coming residential section of North Charleroi is the hill section. Fourth street above the school house is almost crowded with homes. But they are beautiful homes on beautiful large lots. The nice thing about North Charleroi is that when the lots were laid out plenty of elbow room was provided for anybody that should buy and build. Center avenue is really the principal residential avenue on the hill in North Charleroi, where the people are gradually drifting. Not long ago a sale of land was conducted in Lockview Terrace. Numerous excellent lots were disposed of that will soon, it is stated be covered with homes.

High on the hill these sites afford a fine outlook both up and down the river. The giant smokestacks of the Monessen mills can be seen through the clear pure atmosphere to the north and to the south the big Charleroi glass factories. Less of the dirt and smoke of these large plants reach the North Charleroi hill district than the hills of Charleroi and Monessen. This made the residence section especially desirable.

Plans are on foot for the improvement of several of the hill streets. Center avenue and the remainder of Fourth street will eventually be paved. Better walks will be laid.

BIG ADDITION TO ICE PLANT

Valley Crystal Ice and Storage Company Lets Contract and Work is Started at North Charleroi.

Work has been started on a $17,000 addition to be made to the Valley Crystal Ice and Storage company's ice producing plant at North Charleroi. The contract is held by the York Manufacturing Co., of York. The new building will be to the north of the present plant, and will make an addition 25 by 150 feet.

The new addition will be built of concrete block. Boiler room capacity will be increased, but the storage room will not be enlarged.

At the present time the capacity of the ice plant of the Valley Crystal Ice and Storage company is 40 tons. The addition will enable the plant to enlarge their capacity 25 tons. The ice plant was put into operation seven years ago and the trade has been growing rapidly ever since. Much difficulty has been experienced in supplying the increasingly large demand for ice. It is planned to have the addition ready for use by the middle of May, so that the supply of ice during the summer will be equal to the demand.

The Valley Crystal Ice and Storage company is one of the principal industries in North Charleroi, employing from 15 to 25 men the year around. There are large storage rooms where all kinds of fruit, vegetables and farm products are kept fresh. In fact the storage rooms are among the largest and best in this part of the Monongahela valley.

THIRTY-NINE BIRTHS, TWENTY-FOUR DEATHS IN NORTH CHARLEROI

S. W. Sharpneck, registrar of vital statistics for the borough of North Charleroi, states that in the district there were 39 births and 24 deaths. Of the 39 births there were 27 in the borough proper and two in the Monessen-Charleroi hospital, which is in the borough limits. Of the total number of deaths there were 18 in the hospital and but six in the borough proper.

CAN GET IN AND GET OUT EASILY

Traveling Facilities at North Charleroi Even Better Than Charleroi or Monessen. Sister Towns. Enjoy.

In point of quick and cheap transportation to centers of population and industry, North Charleroi has more and better facilities than any other point in the valley. Owing to its proximity to Monessen, any point in that big mill town can be reached for a five cent fare. A five cent trolley fare also brings a resident of North Charleroi to Belle Vernon.

For this reason North Charleroi is an ideal place for a working man to live with his family. From that point a single trolley fare places him in quick and easy communication with any of the big steel, tin plate and wire mills in Monessen, the big factory of the American Window Glass company at Belle Vernon, to say nothing of the numerous coal mines along the line of the trolley. At Charleroi all the big factories are virtually within walking distances, with a single trolley fare whenever a worker desires to take advantage of that means of transportation.

Then there are two available railroads, the Pennsylvania, which runs directly through North Charleroi, and the Pittsburgh, Lake Erie and Western just across the bridge at Monessen. On account of the location of No. 4 lock at North Charleroi, the town is one of the most important boat landings on the river, and all the conveniences of present and future developments of water transportation are at the command of residents of the town. North Charleroi is exceedingly fortunate in having the best transportation facilities of any point along the river.

The Morris Studio is now equipped to make photographs at night. 15712

BUILDING BRISK DURING YEAR

Eighteen Permits for Dwellings at North Charleroi Issued During the Last Twelve Months.

Eighteen building permits were granted in North Charleroi borough during the year 1912. Of this number practically all were for frame dwellings, and practically all of the frame dwellings were to be erected in the hill district.

In the number of buildings 1912 was not as good as the year 1911. But the total cost of these erected during 1912 would greatly surpass those constructed during 1911.

The new school building which was occupied the first of the present term was the costliest and best building completed. It was started during the summer of 1911 and finished last summer, to be dedicated on Thanksgiving Day.

Most of the new buildings in North Charleroi have been started on Fourth street and on Center avenue. Conrad avenue promises to be a popular residence street in time.

North Charleroi has a pattern distinctly its own in the erection of dwellings. There is plenty of space on the prairie like hill top, and those who laid out the lots counted that in when they make their surveys. The result is not only room enough for good sized houses, but also room enough for good sized yards around the houses.

The Colonial shoemaker.
American supremacy in shoemaking is due largely to specialization. Abroad an operative does half a dozen different things. Here he performs one simple process, and here also one factory makes one kind of shoes. If a large manufacturer makes different kinds of shoes he has a separate factory for each kind.

To Our Friends and Neighbors

You know us. You know we would not--that we could not afford to--go back on our word. Nor can you afford to ignore this money-back-if-not-satisfied offer on this splendid laxative.

We honestly believe we have the best bowel remedy ever made--the most pleasant-to-take, most permanently beneficial laxative for relief from the miseries and dangers arising from constipation.

We wouldn't say this if we didn't believe it to be true. We wouldn't risk our reputation by making such statements did we not feel sure you would find them true.

Our faith is built both on the knowledge of what Rexall Orderlies are made of and on observation of very many severe cases in which they have proven their merit.

Try them at Our Risk

If they do not abundantly prove their merit with you also--if you are not entirely satisfied with them--we will refund your money--and we will do that on your mere say-so. We don't ask you to risk a penny. Isn't that fair?

Just let the bowels fail in properly doing their work--just let their action be delayed and incomplete and the entire system and every other organ suffers. Wastes that

HOSPITAL STAFF BEING MADE UP

Fifty Physicians in Vicinity
Are Invited to Become Members

LETTER IS DIRECTED TO ALL

Explanation Made of Method For Conducting Local Institution—Superintendent to be Elected at the Next Meeting.

Invitations have been issued by the Board of Directors of the Charleroi-Monessen hospital to the 50 physicians, surgeons, dentists and specialists in Charleroi, Monessen, Belle Vernon, and North Charleroi to become members of the medical and surgical staff for the ensuing year. Before doing so the constitution and by-laws were carefully amended to meet all conditions fairly and make service on an attending staff in actual charge of the institution entirely congenial both personally and professionally.

Following is a copy of the letter of invitations received this week by all eligible to practice.

Charleroi-Monessen Hospital.
Lock No. 4. Pa.

Jan 28, 1915.

My dear Sir:—In soliciting your services to the community for the ensuing year on the medical and surgical staff of the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, we respectfully call your attention to the enclosed provisions of the constitution and by-laws of the institution pertaining to the time and terms of service, which were adopted as amended at our last regular meeting.

By your acceptance, it is distinctly understood by the board of directors that you may elect to serve on a semi-annual attending staff with other members who are personal and professional friends. Each semi-annual attending staff may then subdivide its own members at will into shorter terms of service of not less than three months, with the assistance of the staff committee, and thereby not impose a burden upon any physician or surgeon who does not find it convenient or profitable to serve continually for a period of six months.

Should the services of a member of the attending staff not be required for the full period of three months continually, then the attending staff in charge may arrange the various terms of service conveniently among themselves.

At the next regular meeting of the board of directors February 9, 1915
all physicians, surgeons and dentists qualified to become members of the general staff and accepting this invi-

LOWSTUTER NAMED CAPTAIN OF HIGH FOOTBALL ELEVEN

Backfield Man to Direct Field Affairs
Of Football Team Next Fall—
Schedule Being Arranged.

Charles Lowstuter, a sensational backfield man of last fall's Charleroi high school football team will captain

been elected by the high school athletic association. S. R. Grimm, last year's coach will again coach the team, and will also look after the management of the club.

A partial schedule has already been arranged. Washington, Donora, Connellsville and Braddock high

GIDEONS WILL PLACE BIBLES IN THE CHARLEROI HOTELS

Local Hostels Will Receive 158 of These Books for Their Guest Rooms—
Members of Society Explain.

"The Gideons," the Christian Commercial Travelers' association, have made arrangements to place bibles in all the seven Charleroi hotels.
It will take 158 bibles to supply
rooms of the local hotels.

The plan of the traveling men's association is to place a bible in each guest room of every hotel in the United States and Canada. They have an organization of over 9,000 men at the present time, and have placed more than 250,000 bibles in hotels in the United States and 350,000 in the hotels of Canada.

"The Gideons" purchase the bibles
and place them in the hotels, and explain the matter to the people of the towns through the churches and ask their cooperation in paying for them.
If the collections do not amount to enough to pay for them the association meets the expense. It is expected that a number of the members of the association will speak in the Charleroi churches on February 7.

THE CONSPIRACY WITH EMERSON STARRING AT THE COYLE TOMORROW

Broadway's most recent dramatic triumphs. Emerson will have in his all-star cast some of the best known players. Next week's program at the Coyle is to be unusual in every particular. For Tuesday night, Manager Coyle is announcing "The Cru-

PENSION FUND TO BE $1,800

County Commissioners Include Money for Mothers
in Annual Budget

GOVERNOR NAMES TRUSTEES

Provisions of Law Are That State
Helps in Work of Caretaking—Women Appointees Serve on Board Without Pay.

In making up their budget for the coming year county commissioners made an appropriation this week of $1800 to the mothers pension fund for Washington county. The law provides that the limit of the appropriation that can be made in counties that have no incorporated cities within their limits to this fund is $1500.
The fact that Monongahela is the only third class city within this county allows the county commissioners to give $300 more than they otherwise would.

The state will make an appropriation of $1500 also to this fund in this county. The law provides that the governor shall appoint not less than five nor more than seven women to act as trustees in each county that desires to avail itself of the provisions of the mothers' pension. These trustees have the power to carry out the provisions of the law which provides for the monthly payment in indigent, abandoned or widowed mothers for the partial support of their children at their own homes.

Such payments are to continue at the will of the trustees, but not beyond the time limit that the law will permit a child to secure employment.
The amount is set by the trustees who shall serve without pay. In order to secure the benefit of this law a mother must have resided in the county for three years or more.

Relating Story of "Punching" Man
Across River.

At the office of Squire C. E. Eckles
at West Brownsville, Coroner James Heffran Tuesday afternoon held the inquest into the death of Charles Moffitt on the night of January 8. Of the six witnesses heard, the most important was Harry Drennon of Brownsville. Drennon testified that on the night of Moffitt's death, Joseph Roberts came to the hotel where he, Drennon, was employed as bar-keeper and asked him for some money.

When Roberts placed his hands on the bar, Drennon noticed that they were stained with blood and that his coat sleeve and arm were smeared a bloody hue. He asked Roberts what he had been doing and Roberts replied that a man on the "other side" had punched him and that he had struck him.

After the witnesses had told what they knew the jury gave the following verdict: "We, the jury, find that Charles Moffitt came to his death at his room in West Brownsville, Washington county, Pennsylvania, January 8, 1915, from shock and hemorrhage as the result of being struck over the head with a blunt instrument at the hands of one or all men, namely Samuel Roberts, Joseph Roberts and Peter Dalay. We recommend that the county authorities continue their efforts for the apprehension of those ef-orts for the apprehension of those not yet arrested so that all three men named above may be held to await the action of the grand jury on charge of murder."

COAL

The actual value of the coal in the Spring Washington and Greene counties is almost incalculable. While its present market value is affected by present conditions yet nothing can take away the real value. And few people perhaps realize how important this wealth is to the future of these two counties—how much it will depend on it in the future for our material prosperity. Says the Washington Observer:

It is well known by experts that one acre of coal of the coking quality will produce 12,000 tons of coal. And those 12,000 tons of coal will produce 8,000 tons of coke; that at the prevailing contract price 8,000 tons of coke is worth $16,000.

And yet the average price which is being asked for the coal holdings of Mr. Thompson at the present time is but $300 per acre—a large margin left between the price for the product in its raw state and in its finished state.

The Uniontown News-Standard in a recent editorial on "coal as an asset" makes the following pertinent remarks:

"The country just now is on the eve of an era of prosperity which must be watchless in the history of nations. Europe will have to be rebuilt. South America is turning toward us. Our own markets are secure from the cheaper products of other lands for the next generation.

Within the next ten years Greene county will witness the same wonderful development that has come to Fayette county. Within a year or two—within five years at the outside—the Pittsburg vein of coking coal in Greene county and in West Virginia will approximate the value of the same coal in Fayette county—and as far back as 1907 this coal in this county brought as much as $3,000 an acre!

"In the famous coal mines of Wales they must sink shafts more than a thousand feet deep. They must go below sea level. They must work thin veins. In other fields that are now prosperous miners must work on their stomachs; they must move as much debris as they do coal. But the thousands of acres of coal owned by Mr. Thompson and associates consist of the matchless Pittsburg vein that is rarely less than nine feet in thickness—much of it reaches 11 feet—where a man can stand up and dig where he is close to the surface, where the mining is absolutely safe; where nothing but coal is handled; where the raw coal loaded on the cars at the surface will bring at least $12,000 for every acre mined or $16,000 for every acre coked, and where the present market value of that coal will average only three hundred dollars an acre!"

COASTING.

Coasting is dangerous when confined to a certain extreme especially that extreme when the safety of pedestrians is concerned. Providence protects the men, but not the boys coasting on a steep hill. A boy can get the entire fifty-seven varieties of tumbles and still escape without injury, but when he slides down like a person on a slide the story is different. As long as coasting is good, chance for accident are multiplied, not as has been remarked so much for the boy who coasts as for the one who gets in his way.

Everybody believes in boyhood pleasures, and nobody will deny a boy the

WAR BULLETINS

London, Jan. 27.—The British fleet did not escape unscathed in the naval battle on the North sea with the Germans, last Sunday. The battle cruiser Lion, which led the British squadron, and the torpedo boat destroyer Meteor both were disabled, and had to be towed into port, while one officer and 13 men were killed and three officers and 24 men wounded on the three ships, the Lion, Tiger and Meteor. All the British ships and torpedo boats engaged in Sunday's battle have returned to port in safety. The Lion was struck by a German shell below the water line. Two hundred additional survivors of the German cruiser Bleucher, sunk in the North sea, Sunday by British warships, have been landed. The German armored cruiser Friedrich Carl and a group of torpedo boats were seen Tuesday off the island of Heligoland, at the entrance to the gulf of Bothnia. All's shipping in the gulf has stopped. It is reported that the German cruiser Gaoelle was torpedoed Monday by a submarine of unknown nationality at a point in the Baltic sea near the island of Guericke. She was disabled but was able to return to the port of Sassnitz. It is reported that the Germans have been preparing for several days for a big military venture today in honor of the Emperor's birthday. The Germans have made a determined effort against French and British lines in Flanders and northern France. The German losses have been heavy.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—The Germans have delivered an attack on the French coast east of Ypres and no less than five attacks on the first division of the British forces on either side of the Dardanelles canal. The Germans were successful on the south side of the waterway, the British attempt to recapture these trenches was repulsed with heavy losses.

London, Jan. 27.—The Russians are making another effort to advance in east Prussia. There has been a shattering in the fighting on both sides for the moment. The Russians appear to be concentrating themselves on their offensive north of the lower Vistula, while the Austro-Germans are busy making preparations to meet the Russian advance through the passes of the Carpathians and in southern Bukovina.

Alburtis, Pa. — "I am a teacher in the public schools and I got into a very nervous, run-down condition. I could not sleep and had no appetite. I was tired all the time."

"Vinol is certainly a fine medicine and even the doctors say it is a good tonic."—ROSA M. KELLER, Alburtis, Pa.

The reason Vinol restored Miss Keller to her normal health was because in a natural manner it sharpened her appetite, aided digestion, strengthened her nerves, and as a result brought the refreshing sleep she needed.

ECONOMIZE ON YOUR MEDICINE PIPER'S PHARMACY WILL SELL 100 BOTTLES OF MEDICINE AT HALF PRICE. MAKE YOUR OWN COUGH MEDICINE

One hundred residents of Charleroi will have a chance to get a 50c bottle (but only one to each family) of Schiffman's Concentrated Expectantant at half price, at Piper's Pharmacy, Fifth and Fallowfield, today and tomorrow only, but remember on these days only. With a view of giving those who have not yet used this excellent remedy an opportunity of trying it, the proprietor and (Piper's Pharmacy) have decided to reduce the price so as to give the first 100 applying a regular 50c bottle for 25c, by presenting this coupon below. Even though not in need of such a medicine at the present time, it will pay to take advantage of this opportunity, as some remedy is quite sure to be required before the winter is over, but this remedy cannot be obtained at half price again.

This latest method of supplying a remedy in such strongly concentrated form, where you buy all pure medicinal in small bottles, is more economical. Instead of buying, to break up a cold or cough, several bottles of old fashioned, ready-made remedies containing only a small quantity of real medicine and a large proportion of sugar and water, also paying for bottles, cork's, labels, etc., better to get a 2-ounce bottle of Schiffman's Concentrated Expectantant and mix it at home, making your own sugar Syrup (according to directions) and make a full pint of the best Cough Medicine, besides save $2.00 to $3.00, which this quantity would cost for the same amount of ordinary kinds. One bottle will also probably be a sufficient quantity to last a family the entire winter. Absolutely no chic form, opium, morphine, or any other narcotic is contained in this remedy. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. Besides absolutely no risk whatever is run in buying this remedy, as (Piper's Pharmacy) will refund your 25c if it is not found the very best remedy ever used for Croup, Whooping Cough or Hoarseness. Persons calling after these 100 bottles are sold or living out of the city where they are unable to get it of their local druggist, will not be disappointed, but will be sent a bottle, postpaid, upon receipt of the coupon and 25c, providing they order of the proprietor today.

Address R. J. Schiffman, 205 W. 6th St., St. Paul, Minn.

WASTED WEALTH OF COUNTRY

All Kinds of Game Has Been Indiscriminately Slaughtered Throughout Labrador.

The fish, fowl and fowl of Labrador, writes Dr. Grenfell in the Wide World, have been exploited to the last degree, and no scientific or practical effort has been made for their protection or rehabilitation. Our ducks, curlew, ducks, and many other birds have become either extinct or dangerously depleted. Our deer, owing to forest fires caused by carelessness and unregulated slaughter by Indians, as well as white hunters have to a great extent been exterminated. The salmon catch is only a shadow of what it once was, and even the returns of our still valuable cod fishery show increasing uncertainty in quantity and distribution. The growing number of trappers, the lack of protection, or the destruction of their food supplies, has made the annual winter fur hunt insufficient to maintain in comfort all who prosecute it, and that in spite of the immense increase in the price of pelts. Seals and whales are rapidly approaching a similar fate.

No mines are yet opened; no timber properties yet developed, and no use is made of our unlimited water power. Only a handful of visitors come to enjoy the wild scenery, the unique natural conditions, and the invigorating atmosphere, though our fjords rival those of Norway, and have the additional attraction of being virgin and unexplored. No charting has been done, and at that time, as already stated, there was not one light on the coast from the straits of Belle Isle to Hudson's bay to render navigation safe. It is little to be wondered at if adequate tourist steamers do not ply in our waters. In fact, Labrador is in that melancholy stage of evolution that must inevitably overtake every country until attention is turned to the development of industries that man does not share with the tiger and the shark.

Boston Man Who Bought the Space Was Accused at the Time of Wasting Money.

Frank A. Allen of the firm of Allen & Paine, engaged from 1860 to 1862 in the manufacture of women's cloaks on Devonshire street, is the oldest Journal advertiser living today. The Journal was the first paper in New England to print a full page advertisement, and this came from Mr. Allen in 1861.

"At that time," Mr. Allen said a few days ago, so large an ad was almost unheard of in a Boston or New England newspaper. With the exception of Roger Beemer's advertisement of his New York Ledger, I do not recollect any other occupying so large a space. I remember very well some of our friends thought us foolhardy and on the high road to ruin because we jumped into the advertising proposition to such an extent, and we were accused of throwing away money, and particularly for throwing away so much money for one ad. and in a single paper.

"The result, however, proved that we were not fools"--Boston Journal.

In and Out of Damascus Buildings.
The hotel is called the "Grand Victoria," but it is above a blacksmith shop and a saddle shop. The lower stories are mostly blank, bare walls. From the upper stories project balconies of latticed oriel, some of which extend so far over the street as to make it easy for the red-tailed damsel of the harem to leap across.

In contrast with these plain exteriors, the interiors are often exquisitely beautiful, having an open court paved with marble and a fountain fed by the waters of the Abana, tinkling and splashing through the hot hours of the day, and wooing one to rest during the cool of the evening. Palms, orange trees and oleanders stand here and there. Within the house you discover rooms cold and formal to an American, but brilliant with Oriental hangings, brasses and inlaid mother-of-pearl furnishings--Christian Herald.

Transforming Trouble.

An artist once painted a lovely picture, but just as he finished it he was seized by some mishap to get several blots in the sky. To rub these out without spoiling the whole picture was impossible. What did he do? Possibly you may think that he began to tear his hair and fume. Not at all. He quietly took his pencil and turned the blots into birds. To each blot he gave a beak and a pair of wings--and lo, it was a bird!

A glorious way of dealing with troubles. Make them into birds, and get them wings, and then they may even fly away and leave you.

Halters for Cromwell.
The Massachusetts statue of Cromwell, which it is proposed to remove from its present site, is one of three of the Lord Protector in England, the others being the one outside Westminster hall and the one in the marketplace of St. Ives, Hunts.

At the unveiling ceremony of this last some 12 years ago it was found that beneath the veiling some local Jacobites had deposited halters with inscriptions in anything but loving memory, ropes with suggestive dedications, and gunpowder.

TWO WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill.--"I must thank you with all my heart for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used to go to my doctor for pills and remedies and they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headaches.' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' and she did and feels fine now."--Mrs. M. R. KARSCHNICK, 1438 N. Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The Other Case.
Dayton, Ohio.--"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of pains in my side that I had for years and which doctors' medicines failed to relieve. It has certainly saved me from an operation. I will be glad to assist you by a personal letter to any woman in the same condition."--Mrs. J. W. SHERER, 126 Cass St., Dayton, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

DOUBLY PROVEN

Charleroi Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence
This Charleroi citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief--of undoubted benefit.
The facts are now confirmed.

Such testimony is complete--the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. Robert Coulter, 520 Third St., Charleroi, Pa., says: "One of the family had the measles when he was five years old, which left him with weak kidneys. The trouble was most distressing at night and there seemed to be an inability to control the kidney secretions. I had often mended and I was induced to get a supply at Piper's Pharmacy. The one who used this remedy was soon benefited and we have hopes of a permanent cure."

Her Hopes Realized.

On January 30, 1911, Mrs. Coulter said: "I willingly confirm the statement I gave praising Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago. Doan's Kidney Pills made a complete cure for one of our family."

Forty of the World's Great Nations to Join With America In Celebrating the Opening of the Panama Canal In a Conclave Unsurpassed In History.

Big International Exposition's Amusements Novel and Wonderful

President Wilson Will Visit Panama-Pacific Display of Nations via Panama Canal—Vanderbilt Cup Race and Grand Prix Will Be Held In San Francisco.

By HAMILTON WRIGHT.
WONDERFUL and novel amusements, parades and pageants of the oriental countries, and the races and athletic contests will be observed upon a scale of unexampled magnitude and grandeur at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The extensive participation of China, Japan, Siam and Indo and Cochiti, when taken in connection with the plans already made and with the interesting oriental population of San Francisco, assures such spectacles as have never before been seen in the city. Pageants of miles in length set off by wonderful floats and marvelous pyrotechnics will wind through the streets of San Francisco.

There will be big, throughout the

At an expenditure of $1,250,000 the Exposition has constructed a great Auditorium in the city center of San Francisco, which will be used by the great conventions and song festivals. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crane will present their latest terpsichorean novelty, the "Exposition Tango." Mr. Harry Lauder will stage the Exposition ballad.

The amusement section of the Exposition, the "Zone," corresponding to the famous "Midway" at the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago, will carry out the purpose of the Exposition to give every feature a high educational value.

Wonderful Exhibits From All Lands Show the World's Best Progress

From Beginning to End Magnificent Panama-Pacific International Exposition Will Abound With Superb Educational and Entertainment Features.

By HAMILTON WRIGHT.
THE construction of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco was 95 per cent completed three months before the opening day, on Feb. 20, 1915. The early installation of thousands of tons of rare and costly exhibits from all parts of the globe and the participation of forty of the world's great countries have assured a celebration that will be unrivaled in its splendor, magnitude, interest and comprehensiveness.

From its opening until its close, on Dec. 4, 1915, the Exposition will abound with original features collected at an expenditure of many millions of dollars. It will present a cross section of human achievement. The Panama-Pacific International Exposition will be a spectacle of the world's best progress.

WONDERFUL GLASS DOME OF THE PALACE OF HORTICULTURE, PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, SAN FRANCISCO, 1915.

Palace of Horticulture, looking through the Court of Palms. This beautiful structure has a glass dome 155 feet high and 152 feet in diameter. Crowning the dome is a huge basket. entire period of the Exposition, which opens Feb. 20, 1915, a series of great events, including sports and athletic contests of many kinds, will be held upon a scale of great magnitude.

The Vanderbilt Automobile Cup Race and the Grand Prix, the two supreme events of the automobile year, will be held upon a four-mile course, embracing a circuit of the Exposition grounds, a spectacular background far exceeding in beauty and grandeur any which has been beheld during its history. The Vanderbilt Cup Race will take place on Feb. 22 and the Grand Prix on Feb. 27, 1915. The two events of the deep sea cruiser type will race for a $10,000 prize from New York through the Panama canal to the Golden Gate. A series of international yacht races in the twenty-one racing class will be held in San Francisco bay. President Woodrow Wilson, Emperor William of Germany and King George of England have each offered trophies in these events, swimming water polo, basketball, canoeing, football, baseball and long distance foot racing are provided in a series of more than 200 different kinds of contests. President Wilson himself will attend the Exposition, and it is probable the members of congress will attend in an especially chartered steamer.

Of international interest will be the greatest live stock show in the world's history. More than $50,000 will be awarded in prizes in a continuous live stock exhibit. Rare and valuable breeds of all kinds of live stock from distant corners of the globe will be shown. Spectators of the famous Chalmers will while cattle will be exhibited for the first time. With the exception of two specimens at the London Zoo this breed has never been shown outside of Chalmers park, England. These cattle are pure white, with black noses, black tips to the ears, and black horns. An international sheep shearing contest will be one of the unique exhibitions.

For the musical events there has been built up the Exposition the magnificent Festival Palace upon the grounds. This is equipped with a wonderful pipe organ, upon which Mr. Edwin Lemare, world famous organist, among other celebrities, will give a series of recitals. The International Elitist will at San Francisco complete for $25,000 in cash prizes; more than 20,000 singers will participate in

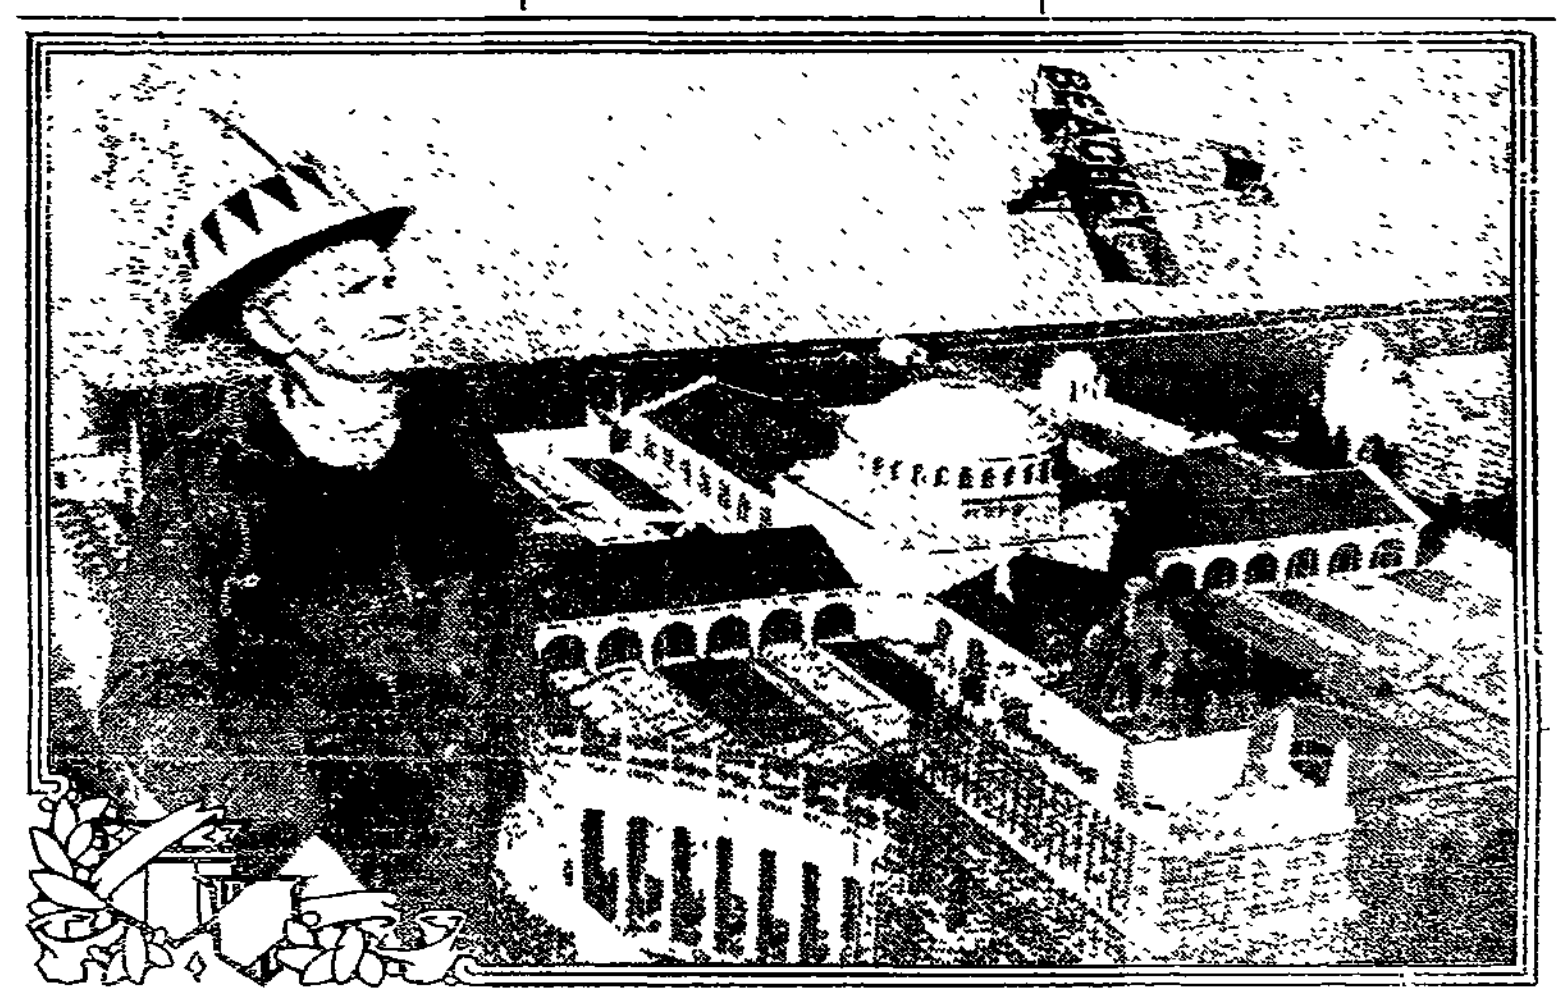

Imagine, for the purposes of illustration, the most action and novelty of ten great courses like the Bermuda and the Bahamas combined into a single "great show on earth" and presented at ten times the cost of the single production and an idea is gained of the magnitude of this section. A total of more than eleven millions of dollars has been expended in its establishment. The concessions, as these less serious features of the Exposition are known, include a great open air panorama reproduction of the Yellowstone National park and a similar representation of the Grand Canyon of Arizona, presented by two of the transcontinental railways. The Grand Canyon concession is built upon so prodigious a scale that visitors will view the canyons from a standard gauge railway coach running on a standard gauge track. ENGINEERS AT WORK ON CHARLEROI COAL SURVEY

Carnegie Coal Company Getting in Shape to Start Work

WILL BUILD TIPPLE

Similar Plans to Those Drawn by Charleroi Company to be Followed

Under direction of George S. Baton, mining engineer of the Carnegie Coal company, surveys of the Charleroi Coal company property purchased a week ago are being made. A corps of about half a dozen men has been put to work. R. A. Thomas will probably be the man in charge at the plant. The surveys which were started Friday will be to ascertain data of the sidings and location for a new haulage. As soon as these surveys are completed work of improvement will begin to put the mine in order for an early start.

Plans drawn by the Charleroi Coal company for the construction of a new tipple will practically be duplicated, it is stated by the new concern. Other improvements similar to those planned by the Charleroi Coal company engineers, a power plant was included to be used by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company for their glass factory conjunctively with the coal plant. It is understood the Carnegie Coal company will buy their power.

HOTT IS GROOMED

Contributor Thinks Former Burgess Would be Popular Man

MADE GOOD IN OFFICE

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:

The coming borough primaries for the nomination of borough officials from burgess down, should and is being given considerable thought just at this time. The office of burgess of the borough and who shall fill it is taking the lead in discussion. Charleroi with its reputation for doing things, for its clean and well paved streets, its numerous and fine churches, its exceptional filtration plant and its efficient fire department, its excellent street car service, the building of a government building, and the fact that this the Governor Tener's town, make it incumbent upon the citizens of the town to select their best man from the many good men who are now spoken of for burgess. When it is known that a majority of the improvements have been accomplished within the last eight or ten years, it speaks well for the executive and judiciary ability of the officers of the borough during that time, in so skillfully guiding the affairs of the town, that the citizens today are justly proud of.

There are many good men named as probable aspirants for the office of burgess, and among them James J. Hott, who formerly filled that office with credit and honor to himself and the town. It is well known to the older citizens that "Jim" knew no pull, no color, no creed, when justice was demanded from him, and yet he is one of the most considerate and sympathetic of men of which scores can testify. During former Burgess Hott's term, many propositions were made, improvements suggested and franchises asked for. Some of the propositions were acted upon, improvements suggested were carried out, some franchises asked for refused, others granted, until today we

Governor Tener Refuses Charter For Trans-County Road Because of Protest Made by Washington and Jefferson College

All hope of the West Penn interests securing a charter over East Wheeling street, Washington, to build a line to Bentleyville from Washington has been abandoned by the West Penn officials. Governor Tener has refused to sign the charter granting the Washington Traction company the right to use the street, on account of the protest which was filed by President J. D. Moffat of Washington & Jefferson college, on the grounds that the line would seriously interfere with the work in the new Physics building.

The Washington Traction company secured a franchise from the borough of Washington some months ago and also from the borough of East Washington and some $10,000 had been spent by the West Penn interests in engineering work and in securing rights of way between Washington and Bentleyville.

After the franchise had been secured the college authorities made a protest both to council and to the state department. Efforts were made to have the company enter Washington over the Beau street lines of the Pittsburgh Railways company and the West Penn interests were willing to accept this arrangement. But the Pittsburgh Railways company would not agree to it and sent its attorneys to Harrisburg to protest against any such traffic arrangement. The West Penn interests, in order to cause no injury to the work in the Physics building agreed to run its large feed wires around by Strawberry alley so that they would not be on the square between Lincoln and College streets, near the college building. They say that this arrangement would have made it possible to secure the entrance to Washington on Wheeling street and would not have interfered in any way with the work which is being done in the new Physics building.

Governor Tener is reported to have promised Dr. Moffat that the charter would not be signed and every effort to have him change his position has been futile.

H. P. Chambers of the West Penn interests stated Saturday that the company had now given up all hope of getting a line through to Bentleyville and would be obliged to abandon this project and take up others in other parts of Western Pennsylvania.

This also means the abandonment of the project to connect Washington with Wheeling, which was a part of the scheme of getting an entrance to the Nail City over the lines of the City and Elm Grove company whose lines now extend to West Alexander.

ATTACK ON LEAVES OPERATOR MARINES

Telephone Exchange Charleroi Naval Lad Home With Honorable Discharge

A story of a terrifying experience in the Bell Telephone office is told by Miss Frances Alsopp, the 18 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alsopp of Washington avenue. Miss Alsopp is the night operator at the Bell exchange. She states that while she was at work Sunday morning at about 2 o'clock she heard a noise at the door leading to the manager's office. She opened the door, she relates and was confronted by a man dressed and looking like a tramp.

She said: "What do you want?" "I want you," replied the intruder. Just then a call came in, according to Miss Alsopp's story and she started to answer it. The man put his hand on her shoulder ordering her not to turn in the call. She wrenched free, scratching her arm and he hurried away. Miss Alsopp said the intruder had gained entrance over a transom at the manager's office. Investigations are being made by the police into the affair.

have one of the most up-to-date towns in Western Pennsylvania, and while there were thousands of dollars expended, there has not been one breath of graft or scandal connected with it. In view of the achievements, started and accomplished, the energy and activity expended, in the interests of the town the genial disposition and well known civic pride of Mr. Hott, it is not wonder that many of the people say, that "Jim" Hott is their choice for burgess. There is hardly any doubt that if "Jim" decides to be a candidate that the one who would beat him, (to use a street phrase) would be going some. Citizen.

Seventy Converts at Washington Avenue Church

REV. BURSON PREACHES

What has proved a remarkably successful period of revival was brought to a close at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church Sunday night. Seventy was the number of converts secured during the three weeks of services conducted by Rev. John R. Burson, the pastor.

Rev. Burson preached on the theme "The Love of God" Sunday evening to a crowded house. Hardly an empty seat was to be found. His sermon was a masterly effort and brought an even dozen persons to take a stand for better things.

Rev. Burson's assistants were the members of the church themselves, he having no evangelist to help.

People Will Likely Vote This Fall on Convention

MAY CHOOSE MEMBERS

Revision Commission Proposed to Gather Data Before Formers Meet

Harrisburg, Jan. 27.—When the legislature convenes again tonight three bills are scheduled to be introduced that will pave the way for a new constitution. These bills are the product of the labors of the committee, consisting of William Draper, Lewis, Robert D. Dripps and State Chairman Henry G. Wasson, which was named by the executive and legislative committee of the last Republican convention in Philadelphia in December, and was in furtherance of the resolution adopted in favor of holding a constitutional convention.

The first bill provides for a submission to a vote of the people next November of the question of holding a constitutional convention. In the same bill provision is made for the election of 165 delegates to the convention, three from each Congressional district and 15 from the State at large. In the event that a majority of the people voting on the question vote in favor of holding a convention the delegates simultaneously elected will meet in Harrisburg on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, 1914, with full power to devise and propose a new constitution.

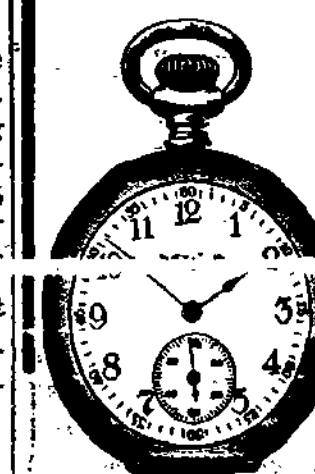

The question of granting woman's suffrage, of the initiative, the referendum, and the recall of officials and of decisions, must be submitted separately so as to have a separate vote on these special points, and on any others that one-third of the delegates may require.

The second bill is a general one, prescribing regulations for any election at which the question of holding a constitutional convention is submitted and at the same time the choice of delegates thereto is made. It provides the form of ballot and the method of conducting the election. It is to be a non-partisan ballot. All the nominations are to be made by petition, filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth not later than 30 days, nor earlier than 60 days, before the election. Nominations can be made in no other way.

The third bill provides for a commission of nine persons to be appointed by the Governor, to be known as the Constitution Revision Commission of Pennsylvania. The Governor must appoint it within 30 days after the passage of the act and it must organize within 15 days after appointment. The duty of the commission is to make a preliminary study of the more important questions involved in the revision of a constitution, to gather and prepare statistics, literature and information and to submit recommendations to the convention, if one be held, or in the event of none being authorized, to report to the General Assembly convening in 1915 a schedule of amendments to the present constitution, with their reasons.

UNCIVILIZED.

An article in the current number of the American Magazine written by a special sociological investigator about the lynching at Coatsville, states that the significance of the whole affair
is that great industrial communities, and states, like Pennsylvania, and Massachusetts, where the recent Laurence strikes attracted world wide attention, are not civilized. He makes the deduction that the modern conditions that prevail in the most of the American industrial communities has resulted, instead of a homogeneneous people in three distinct status or classes. These he designates as a "materialized upper class, a vulgarized middle class, and a brutalized
lower class."

The upper class, he writer says,
is the wealthy one, the middle class
the trading people, the ones whose chief aim is to exploit the lower class, and which subordinates everything to so-called "business," while the lower class is the underpaid workers who live in wretchedness and indecency. This shown by the conditions at Coatsville, where the lynching of the negro occurred. The big iron and steel works there pay less than an average of $2 a day to their hands, and all live in poverty, squalor and wretchedness. At Lawrence, in Massachusetts, the textile workers were shown to earn such pitiable wages that desperation and recklessness rather than special grievances is what actuated the great labor disturbance. Where such conditions prevail, the writer asserts that such communities are uncivilized. Pittsburg is classed among the barbarian communities.

So far as the Coatsville lynching is concerned, the failure to punish the offenders, the writer says, was due to the sentiment in the town which was afraid it would "hurt business."
He also makes the statement that there never was a time when the exact perpetrators could not have been arrested and punished. He says that the sentiment of the community against any action, nothing can be done. The lynching itself was merely a hoodlum outbreak, such as is likely to occur in any industrial community again as long as such brutalizing conditions prevail. That is why the writer terms these communities "uncivilized."

COMING THICK AND FAST.

Reforms and changes are coming thick and fast in Pennsylvania—that is, the disposition to grant these reforms is everywhere manifested by the legislators, who, instead of holding back for orders, as was formerly the case when the people were indifferent to affairs at Harrisburg, are now breaking their necks to be the first to introduce some radical bill or other, just to let the public know their heart is right if nothing more.
Indications are that more constructive legislation will be enacted this year than ever before, and that the public will not be satisfied with proposed reforms unless it is the simon pure article.

All this goes to show how easy it is for the people to get what they want if they all go after it. With every ground swell of popular disapproval of existing conditions, there is a stream to carry all public politicians and office holders. Special interests, which have hitherto ruled—because the people permitted them to —have come to concede everything
the people ask, and popular government once more comes into its own.
We may expect some radical changes in existing conditions as a result of the present session of the legislature, and the wonder will then be why did the people delay so long in coming into their own.

Nature's Remedies for Disease.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

At a nearby Sunday school recently it was stated that the teacher of a juvenile class was trying to impress upon her young charges that the pro-

make some one happy.

"It is the duty of every one to make some one happy," said the teacher.
"Now have you done so, Johnny?"
she asked of a seven year old hopeful.

"Oh, yes," said Johnny, promptly.
"That's right. What did you do?"
"I went to see my aunt and then made her happy by going home. She told a neighbor that I always made her happy when I went home."

IMPROVEMENTS PLANNED FOR

North Charleroi Streets May be Paved This Year—Council Outlines Definite Plans for Beautifying Town.

A number of improvements are planned for this year at North Charleroi.
If plans are carried out at least two streets will be paved, and the entire hill district sewered. The council has already considered an ordinance for the grading and paving of Fourth street up the hill from the school building to Conrad avenue, and it will only be a matter of time when this excellent residence street is bricked.

It is the idea to have Seventh street
up past the Monessen-Charleroi hospital. Also Fourth street from the railroad to the river, it is believed will be graded and bricked before the year has passed.

Plans are now at Harrisburg for the sewerage of the hill district.
These plans were prepared during the last few months and filed with the State Department of Health. Approval of the plans will mean the beginning of sewerage work.

There were few municipal improvements made during 1912. The previous year however was a year of heavy expenditures. Then Lincoln avenue nearly the length of the borough was paved.

NOTICED BOOM IN REAL ESTATE

Burgess Harry W. Scott Be-

Good Future—Many Deals
During Year.

"Real estate boomed in North Charleroi during 1912" says Harry W.
Scott, the North Charleroi real estate agent. "A number of transfers were noted, and there was a number of new buildings erected. The prospects for the spring and summer in the real estate business and building trade are bright. North Charleroi certainly has a future."

"I can't fill this," said the druggist.

NORTH CHARLEROI BIG ADDITION RESIDENCE TOWN TO ICE PLANT

Many Good Homes to be Found Throughout Borough—Building up Rapidly on Hill—Pretty Sites to be Had.

As a residence town the borough of North Charleroi is living up to predictions made years ago. Advantageously situated and in close touch with both Charleroi or Monessen, having transportation facilities that really are not to be had in either of the two larger sister boroughs, the town is growing rapidly. New houses are springing up all over the town, and particularly on the hill. The town that wasn't a town when the census man came around in 1890 has now a population that is estimated to be near 1,500.

When noses were counted in 1900 it was ascertained that North Charleroi borough contained 425 persons, and was lucky to have that many. There were no paved streets and few improvements. After street car lines and the Monessen-Charleroi bridge was dedicated North Charleroi's era of prosperity that has not slackened a bit since began. In 1910 the population had more than doubled, there being within the borough limits 1,008 persons.

The principal and coming residential section of North Charleroi is the hill section. Fourth street above the school house is almost crowded with homes. But they are beautiful homes on beautiful large lots. The nice thing about North Charleroi is that when the lots were laid out plenty of elbow room was provided for anybody that should buy and build. Center avenue is really the principal residential avenue on the hill in North Charleroi, where the people are gradually drifting. Not long ago a sale of land was conducted in Lockview Terrace. Numerous excellent lots were disposed of that will soon, it is stated be covered with homes.

High on the hill these sites afford a fine outlook both up and down the river. The giant smokestacks of the Monessen mills can be seen through the clear pure atmosphere to the north and to the south the big Charleroi glass factories. Less of the dirt and smoke of these large plants reach the North Charleroi hill district than the hills of Charleroi and Monessen. This made the residence section especially desirable.

Plans are on foot for the improvement of several of the hill streets. Center avenue and the remainder of Fourth street will eventually be paved. Better walks will be laid.

BIG ADDITION TO ICE PLANT

Valley Crystal Ice and Storage Company Lets Contract and Work is Started at North Charleroi.

Work has been started on a $17,000 addition to be made to the Valley Crystal Ice and Storage company's ice producing plant at North Charleroi. The contract is held by the York Manufacturing Co., of York. The new building will be to the north of the present plant, and will make an addition 25 by 150 feet.

The new addition will be built of concrete block. Boiler room capacity will be increased, but the storage room will not be enlarged.

At the present time the capacity of the ice plant of the Valley Crystal Ice and Storage company is 40 tons. The addition will enable the plant to enlarge their capacity 25 tons. The ice plant was put into operation seven years ago and the trade has been growing rapidly ever since. Much difficulty has been experienced in supplying the increasingly large demand for ice. It is planned to have the addition ready for use by the middle of May, so that the supply of ice during the summer will be equal to the demand.

The Valley Crystal Ice and Storage company is one of the principal industries in North Charleroi, employing from 15 to 25 men the year around. There are large storage rooms where all kinds of fruit, vegetables and farm products are kept fresh. In fact the storage rooms are among the largest and best in this part of the Monongahela valley.

THIRTY-NINE BIRTHS, TWENTY-FOUR DEATHS IN NORTH CHARLEROI

S. W. Sharpneck, registrar of vital statistics for the borough of North Charleroi, states that in the district there were 39 births and 24 deaths. Of the 39 births there were 37 in the borough proper and two in the Monessen-Charleroi hospital, which is in the borough limits. Of the total number of deaths there were 18 in the hospital and but six in the borough proper.

CAN GET IN AND GET OUT EASILY

Traveling Facilities at North Charleroi Even Better Than Charleroi or Monessen, Sister Towns, Enjoy.

In point of quick and cheap transportation to centers of population and industry, North Charleroi has more and better facilities than any other point in the valley. Owing to its proximity to Monessen, any point in that big mill town can be reached for a five cent fare. A five cent trolley fare also brings a resident of North Charleroi to Belle Vernon.

For this reason North Charleroi is an ideal place for a working man to live with his family. From that point a single trolley fare places him in quick and easy communication with any of the big steel, tin plate and wire mills in Monessen. The big factory of the American Window Glass company at Belle Vernon, to say nothing of the numerous coal mines along the line of the trolley. At Charleroi all the big factories are virtually within walking distance, with a single trolley fare whenever a worker desires to take advantage of that means of transportation.

Then there are two available railroads, the Pennsylvania, which runs directly through North Charleroi, and the Pittsburgh, Lake Erie and Western just across the bridge at Monessen. On account of the location of No. 4 lock at North Charleroi, the town is one of the most important boat landings on the river, and all the conveniences of present and future developments of water transportation are at the command of residents of the town. North Charleroi is exceedingly fortunate in having the best transportation facilities of any point along the river.

The Morris Studio is now equipped to make photographs at night. 157t1

BUILDING BRISK DURING YEAR

Eighteen Permits for Dwellings at North Charleroi Issued During the Last Twelve Months.

Eighteen building permits were granted in North Charleroi borough during the year 1912. Of this number practically all were for frame dwellings, and practically all of the frame dwellings were to be erected in the hill district.

In the number of buildings 1912 was not as good as the year 1911. But the total cost of those erected during 1912 would greatly surpass those constructed during 1911.

The new school building which was occupied the first of the present term was the costliest and best building completed. It was started during the summer of 1911 and finished last summer, to be dedicated on Thanksgiving Day.

Most of the new buildings in North Charleroi have been started on Fourth street and on Center avenue. Conrad avenue promises to be a popular residence street in time.

North Charleroi has a pattern distinctly its own in the erection of dwellings. There is plenty of space on the prairie like hill top, and those who laid out the lots counted that in when they make their surveys. The result is not only room enough for good sized houses, but also room enough for good sized yards around the houses.

The Colonial shoemaker. American supremacy in shoe-making is due largely to specialization. Almost an operative does half a dozen different things. Here he performs one simple process, and here also one factory makes one kind of shoes. If a large manufacturer makes different kinds of shoes he has a separate factory for each kind.

What a sight the modern shoe factory
